Macron products have 3 different wearabilities: Body, Slim and Regular. A bodysuit is a skin-tight garment that covers the body highlighting its contours. The lightweight and elasticity of the fabrics used facilitate movement. A bodysuit usually lends itself very well to sportswear. The Slim line garments are quite tight fitting, not too tight and not too thick. These garments follow the contours of the body without constraining it which means they are comfortable. The Regular fit line ensures a comfortable and generous fit thanks to the choice of cuts and fabrics.
